Bali Green

Professional Learning Program

Explore sustainable education.
Reflect on your practice.
Renew your professional perspective.

Bali Green brings educators together to explore teaching, sustainability and wellbeing in a different educational and cultural setting. A full-day Green Educators course at Green School Bali anchors the professional learning, complemented by a Songan school visit, facilitated educator wellbeing sessions and structured reflection.

LEARNING IN A DIFFERENT CONTEXT

Fresh perspectives on practice

Professional learning through school engagement, facilitated sessions and reflection.

01

A full day at Green School Bali

Participate in the Green Educators course at Green School Bali. Explore sustainability and innovative learning environments, engage with educators and consider ideas relevant to your own teaching context.

02

Learning with local educators

Visit a school in Songan and engage in professional dialogue. Consider how culture, community and local circumstances shape education, and reflect on the implications for your own setting.

03

Educator wellbeing

Participate in facilitated professional learning about stress management, burnout prevention and sustainable practice. Discuss approaches with fellow educators and identify priorities relevant to your professional circumstances.

04

From experience to application

Use guided reflection and discussion to examine the ideas you encounter. Consider your students' learning needs and identify approaches to investigate further, adapt or discuss with colleagues.

WHO IT SUITS

Is this the right program for you?

Bali Green suits educators seeking fresh perspectives through school visits, facilitated learning and professional discussion, alongside time for personal renewal and cultural connection.

Bring curiosity, openness to different educational contexts and a willingness to reflect with others on your professional practice.

YOUR PROGRAM JOURNEY

Space to learn and reflect

1

PREPARE

Prepare with purpose

Use your pre-program learning and professional orientation to identify questions, learning goals and priorities for the week.

2

PARTICIPATE

Learn alongside fellow educators

Engage in the Green Educators course, school visit and wellbeing workshops. Three guided one-hour reflections connect these experiences with your practice.

3

APPLY

Identify your next steps

Complete a one-hour final action plan. Consider ideas to explore further, adapt in your setting or share with colleagues, with attention to your students' learning needs.

Based in a private villa near Ubud, the wider experience includes cultural activities, outdoor exploration and opportunities to unwind. These provide time for connection and personal renewal alongside the structured learning.
